

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY MANAGER

An experienced Occupational Health and Safety Manager is required for an established farming operation in Groblersdal.

Minimum requirements:

- Minimum Experience: Five (5) Years and health and safety certification
- Accident/incident investigation experience and previous OHS experience and knowledge
- Good interpersonal skills, valid driver's licence
- Experience in the agricultural industry preferred

Detailed profile:

- Maintains all safety equipment such as harnesses, vests, first aid kits and any other equipment
- Maintains external contacts with organisations and individuals necessary in the conduct of duties
- Maintains confidentiality at all times
- Alerts company management to any imminent threat or danger.
- Appoints and designates health and safety representatives
- Establishes Health and Safety Committee and designates same in writing
- Holds Health and Safety Committee meetings
- Ensures full compliance with the Occupational Health and Safety Act 85 of 1993
- Manages any major incident
- Manages any inquiry directed by the Health Inspectors
- Manages training of First Aid, Firefighting and Health and Safety Officials
- Reporting requirements - any major incident, risk, dangerous activity
- Monthly Occupational Health and Safety reports to Head of Human Resources
- Designs and implements OHS policies and procedures

Closing date for applications 28 May 2021.

CV's to be sent to Hradmin@schoonbee.co.za.

Telephone calls will not be accepted – please submit CV's.

Salary dependant on experience.

